

GREAT AQUATIC DISPLAY.

A SIX-CASED ROWING MATCH AND A FIVE MILES STRETCH—THE GLICKES, ATLANTAS AND GOURMANS OF THE CIRCUIT THE COMPETITORS—THE RACE WON IN THIRTY-FIVE MINUTES BY THE ATLANTAS—A VAST CROWD PRESENT.

The celebrated waters of the Hudson, in the vicinity of Yonkers were, on Saturday afternoon, the scene of an aquatic display, which attracted the best classes of the sportsmen of New York, and who were willing to risk their money on the outcome of the race between those two six-oared boats, the Atlanta and the Gourmans. The day was bright and clear, the water being perfectly smooth. The Atlanta had a crew of eight, and the Gourmans of nine, and the Atlanta won by a distance of about 100 yards, at every boat having a black ensign flying from her stern, and every boat having a black ensign flying from her stern.
